

Richard Ridings Community Involvement Award

2010 TPWA Awards Program

Purpose	This award recognizes public works employees who are also leaders in their community. The award also encourages public works professionals employed by governmental agencies to become active leaders in their community. It also promotes public trust in public employees through recognition of outstanding community leadership.
Eligibility	Candidates must meet all the following criteria: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Be an active member of TPWA and be employed by a public agency at the local, regional, state, or national level.2. Be an active leader in the community demonstrated through the volunteering of significant time and/or personal resources with charitable organizations or community service groups.3. Provide a positive role model for other public works professionals employed by public agencies.
Selection	The TPWA Awards Committee reviews the nominations and selects the award winner.
Nomination	Nominations may be made by Texas Chapter members, a community organization, or a public agency. Original submittal should include the nomination form and the award's eligibility requirements. Seven copies of the submittal are required. These materials should be sent to the Texas Chapter Awards Chair (address can be found on the TPWA Website). Materials submitted in support of nomination will not be returned.
